"Chinese Watercolor Painting: The Four Seasons" can be read on any device that can open ePub files. A definitive work and peerless classic, this eBook is designed for artists and art lovers alike. Leslie Tseng-Tseng Yu demonstrates the basic techniques of Chinese watercolor painting in a series of step-by-step illustrations accompanied by illuminating text.

A celebration of nature, the four seasons are represented by the traditional subjects of bamboo, chrysanthemum, plum blossom, and orchid. In a sensitive style that inspires as well as instructs, the author explains the subtle interplay of line and space, the materials used--brush, ink, inkstone and paper--and their rich historical backgrounds. The nature and spirit of Chinese painting and its philosophical significance are also discussed, adding to the understanding and appreciation of this traditional, yet very contemporary, art form.

Practical as well as aesthetic, enhanced with original paintings and poetic lines by the author, Chinese Watercolor Painting is a beautiful and inspiring work, a must-have for students of Asian art.
